

Jay Molina

Intermediate / Advanced Bass

Jay is a seasoned bassist and educator known for his deep groove, versatility, and practical, player-focused teaching style. With years of live performance experience across multiple genres, he brings a strong emphasis on feel, timing, and musical connection.

This workshop is best suited to intermediate and advanced players ready to expand their skills.

Jay explores a range of techniques, styles, and approaches beyond simply reading tabs. Expect an interactive session where questions are encouraged, with insights into the “what, why, and how” of his playing, along with useful practice ideas you can take away and apply immediately.
