

Sophisticateandbetty

sophisticateandbetty are an ambush wrapped in sweet harmony. You are cordially invited to peek into the world of these two seemingly nice ladies. Curious? Even curiouiser.

Entrenched in the world of folk they deliver a delicate but unbreakable blend of ukuleles and tightly entwined voices. Betty France and Cate Jardine will take you on a rollercoaster ride of silly words that pack a punch. Their penchant for the whimsical and offbeat will have you laughing and crying in the same set. Sometimes in the same song.

From their charming mythical tale “The Girl From Mokoan” to the painfully funny celebration of motherhood “Wrong Song” each song they write is a hidden treasure unearthed from the depths of a forgotten attic.

Hailing from Melbourne they have performed at several MUF’s as well as headlining at HUF 2022 (Hills Ukulele Festival) and Valla Beach Ukulele Camp, Island View Ukulele Festival in Opotiki, New Zealand and at music/folk festivals, venues and art galleries around Victoria. Their popular ukulele workshops are a staple at Fiddlers Festival and Kelly Country Pick.
