

The Thin White Ukes

Glam Slam Ukulele Workshop

*A feelgood ensemble event for players of all ages and levels
Melbourne ukulele trio The Thin White Ukes are nine years deep in the world of David Bowie. Their 90-minute Glam Slam workshop is renowned for catering to players of all levels of proficiency, from single-fingered strummers to rapid-fire fret shredders, culminating in a riotous all-in performance of a classic BOWIE tune in full rock'n'roll formation.*

The Glam Slam workshop focuses on the art of arrangement. How can you make your ensemble sound like a symphony? How many chord shapes does it take to build a wall of sound? What is the player next to me doing, and how can I make them sound better? How can I move this riff halfway up the neck, or way over the top? We'll help you think about dynamics, chord voicing and inner movement, and maybe most importantly, when to stop playing altogether, throw your head back and point at the sky!

Guaranteed to leave you grinning like the Jean Genie and swaggering like Ziggy Stardust, the Glam Slam workshop will share techniques you can adapt and apply to your whole repertoire for extra texture, bigger sound and performance impact. so put on your red shoes. They'll be floating in a most peculiar way...

Where and When

Saturday 12 Oct 2024 – 1:15 to 2:45pm

The Fat Duck 124 Town Centre